

ABLUTION

Temporary showers, sinks, and restrooms can be provided as part of a turnkey base camp or on an individual rental basis. All ablation facilities are containerized and designed for rugged field conditions.

Showers and toilets are typically provided for occupant use at a rate of one showerhead and one toilet per fifteen persons. Soap, paper towels, and daily service can be provided. Temporary water and power systems can also be provided if not available on-site.

